Q&A to answer your questions.

COME LEARN, KNOW THE FACTS

- How important are parental rights in education and how are they upheld?
- How does one size fits all match differentiation?
- APPR, Teacher Evals, Tests
- How do New Yorkers ensure we have policies that promote local autonomy regarding curriculum and instruction?
- How do we protect student privacy and confidentiality?
- Who guarantees jobs with unfunded mandates?

“The truth is like a lion.

You don’t have to defend it. Let it loose.

It will defend itself.”

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER Dr. Peg Luksik, educator and author, from Founded on Truth.

Peg is a teacher with over 35 years of experience in special and elementary education. In graduate school, a portion of the duties required by her fellowship included working in the psychometric testing center operated at the college. She administered, scored and interpreted the educational assessments used to diagnose gifted and challenged children and to determine the best suited educational programming. She has taught at every school age level in regular classrooms, resource centers, self-contained special education classes, and in alternative educational settings. She has trained teachers in curriculum and classroom management. She has written and evaluated curriculum. She worked for the U.S. Department of Education, where her task was to review and evaluate education reform initiatives. In her presentation she will bring her inside the beltway knowledge and lifetime of advocacy for education.
