Keeping youth out of the Juvenile Justice System by engaging in pro-social activities

Thursday December 3, 2015 6:30 – 7:30 pm

in the Kingston Library Community Room

If your student has ever done something wrong and been excessively punished or just been in the 'wrong place at the wrong time', this workshop is for you. If you are concerned about an excessively punitive culture and would like to see more restorative justice, this workshop is for you. If you are concerned that your student might make a bad choice in the future and be faced with some scary consequences, this workshop is for you. If you care about the kids here in Kingston, this workshop is for you.

The workshop will be followed by a KHS Parents Association meeting from 7:30 – 8:00pm.
